Arcadia and Elsewhere

James Cohan is pleased to present Arcadia and Elsewhere, an expansive group exhibition celebrating the breadth and complexity of contemporary landscape painting practices across geographies and generations. For the first time, this exhibition will unfold across all three of the gallery's spaces, 48 & 52 Walker Street and 291 Grand Street, from January 12 through February 10, 2024. The gallery will host an opening reception on Friday, January 12 from 4-6 PM at its 291 Grand Street location and from 6-9 PM at its 48 and 52 Walker Street spaces.

Arcadia and Elsewhere anchors landscape painting in the myriad portrayals of Arcadian landscapes, which portray nature as an idealized foil to the torrents of human civilization, stretching back into antiquity. The exhibition highlights the enduring prevalence of the landscape in contemporary painting, building connections between both established and emerging artists furtively engaged in the depiction of our natural surroundings as enduring sites of significance, while expanding and complicating the loaded ways in which landscape manifests as a form unto itself.

Arcadia and Elsewhere features work by Spencer Finch, Yun-Fei Ji, Byron Kim, Mernet Larsen, Jordan Nassar, Eamon Ore-Giron, Katie Paterson, Naudline Pierre, Matthew Ritchie, Alison Elizabeth Taylor, and Fred Tomaselli, as well as Lindsay Adams, Hayley Barker, Jennifer Bartlett, Judith Belzer, Colin Brant, Kevin Brisco Jr, Hannah Brown, J.
